More MAVS? More MAVS

Makeup And Vanity Set has graced us with another track from the Brigador Killers OST titled "Fluids". This track will feel familiar to fans of industrial music like Nine Inch Nails.

We continue to be blown away by what MAVS has put together for our next game, and we look forward to sharing more tracks with you later this year. Help us out by adding Brigador Killers to your Steam wishlist right now.

More Brigador maps? More Brigador maps

Community member (and PAX East booth volunteer) ScoreGoblin has organized the first Powersuit Mini-map Community Contest. Create your own miniature campaign-style map suitable for four preset powersuit-sized loadouts and submit it before May 31st to ScoreGoblin over Discord. The winning submission will have their avatar immortalized as an emoji, while all mini-map submissions will be arranged into a downloadable map pack for Brigador.

Never made a map before? Now is the perfect time to start! Hop in to our Discord, go to the maps-and-modding channel and learn how to make one.

PAX East 2020 In Brief

A huge thank you to our community members...

- Gearheart

- Fluffy
- Charles-the-cat
- DickNixon
- Scoregoblin, and
- Lief-Kynes

...for taking the time out of their days and lives to help us run our booth at PAX East in Boston. It is no exaggeration to say that their presence gave everyone the opportunity to enjoy the overall show, and simply just take a few moments break.

We also have an imgur album of various moments from both the show floor and at the community meet up in Emmetts. Click here to see pics!

Community Spotlight

We recently bid farewell to Texas 7 Lounge and introduced two new chat channels: Central Café and The Tea Room. To quote Karl:

Texas 7 Lounge has served us well as the bustling hub of the chat server since 2016, and we want to carry that spirit forward into 2020 and beyond, for Brigador Killers and later projects.

Our community has grown a lot over the last few years and we're hoping that this expanded space for community will help us continue to grow while keeping what makes our server special.

Recent newcomer ceriseCisilipp gave the old chatroom a proper sendoff, and gave us art for the new one...

...While Delta.Pizza chronicled the changeover appropriately.

You can find more fan art featured in the #becks_best channel on our Discord server.

Next Month

In April's newsletter we will have an update on Brigador Killers' release date, see where Brad is with his next novel and check in on how the mini-map contest is going.
