

STELLAR JOCKEYS APRIL NEWSLETTER

Welcome to the Stellar Jockeys newsletter for April. Check out the latest news and updates on our projects, along with a round up of community submissions.

What We're Up To

The team is close to sealing up the script on Brigador Killers, while Brad is two-thirds of the way through his novelization that bridges the gap between Brigador and Brigador Killers. Meanwhile, Makeup And Vanity Set is putting the finishing touches to the soundtrack.

Planning ahead for the eventual release of Brigador Killers means lots of marketing, promotion, and launch support prep. We're looking forward to sharing more details later in the year.

A Note About Merch Store Orders

There have been disruptions to global logistics as a result of the current pandemic, so please expect some delays with any merchandise orders made on the Stellar Jockeys merchandise store. Thank you to everyone that has made inquiries already. If you have any questions about an order made in the past month, please write to team@stellarjockeys.com and be sure to mention your order number.

One Month Left In Community Contest

In case you missed it last month, our Discord community is still running the Powersuit Mini-map Community Contest. Remember that the final submission date for your 60x60 map is due May 31st.

Want to know more about making maps, or modding Brigador in general? Just hop in to our Discord, go to the maps-and-modding channel and check out the pinned messages.

Community Spotlight

It's been a fairly quiet month, but Zi has once again floored us with some fan art of Brigador pilots Sequin Parrot, Aline Vocc and Norman Osberger.

Over on Twitter, community member Pork showed off their pixel-art Mongoose...

...while @Logonoclast made their own SNC desktop wallpaper (download it

More fan art and other community creations are regularly featured in the #becks_best channel on our Discord server.

Next Month

In May's newsletter we eagerly await a glimpse of your mini-map creations, and we will have another treat for your eardrums.
