

STELLAR JOCKEYS FEBRUARY NEWSLETTER

Welcome to the Stellar Jockeys newsletter for February. We've got a bit of merch news, while the community has been getting up to all sorts.

Benjamin, Stellar Jockeys

Busts Will Increase In Price Next Month

1/6 Scale Bust —
Modesto Pires

$15.00

1/6 Scale Bust —
The Auditor

$15.00

1/6 Scale Bust —
Ripley Snell

$15.00

From March 31st onwards the price of 1/6 Scale Busts will go up from 15 USD to 20 USD over on our merch store. The reason for this price increase is because we inaccurately calculated the costs of production. So, in order for us to keep printing busts both in-house and at the quality we desire, and also not lose money on every sale, the price has to increase. Anyone who has already ordered a bust will not be affected by the new sum, and everyone will have until the end of March 2021 to order the scale busts at the current retail value. Please note our three-for-two discount on the busts also still applies, and will apply when the new price tag is applied in April. If you have any issues with your store purchase, please send us a message to team@stellarjockeys.com and be sure to mention your 4-digit order number.

Brigadorable Content

In the lead up to Valentine's Day we ran a Brigador-themed MS Paint contest over on our Discord. The top three winners of that contest were Wallross, charles-the-cat and C2070 who each received an item of their choice from our merchandise store. Here are their winning entries (click to enlarge).

Can I Be
Your $50?

As for all the other entries, they can be found archived in the #ms-paint-competition channel over on our Discord server.

BRIGADOR

DISCORD RP EDITION

Elsewhere on the Discord, members Eschaton and Modusoperandi have been running not one but two short roleplaying scenarios set within the Brigador universe. Eschaton's first scenario, where the action revolved around a Corvid attack on an NEP-controlled hospital just as the Long Night on Solo Nobre began, is wrapping up and the next scenario will be accepting new players soon. You can check out the action of both scenarios within the #p-and-p_ic and #p-and-p_ic2 channels. For those of you wondering how any of this even works in a text-only setting, these are the rules they are using for this RP.

Community Spotlight

Never start the show with a showstopper, but we would be completely remiss if we did not include the latest effort of pap smear who decided to make their own trailer for Brigador Killers with the help of Voiceover Pete...

...Flyingdebris returns again this month, this time with a quick sketch of what they imagine is a type of Corvid power armor called "Oscar"...

...Pixel artist and recent arrival Lowkey Ops gave us a new take on the Touro's colour schemes...

STANDARD NEP COLOUR SCHEMES

SOLO NOBRE'S SUNSET

LKO, 2021

...and our own Brad Buckmaster has not only returned to their craft but also may or may not be partly spoiling a scene from their upcoming Brigador Killers tie-in novel.

Sadly, we can only put a handful of images in every month's newsletter so that they fit neatly in most email clients. You can find plenty more community creations in the #becks_best channel on our Discord server.

Next Month

Winter's almost done with, so see you in the spring along with another batch of community creations.
