

STELLAR JOCKEYS DECEMBER NEWSLETTER

Welcome to the Stellar Jockeys newsletter for December. We made it through 2021, and before we head off we've got a bit more news for you all...

Have Another GIF from Brigador Killers

Click the above image or this link to see it in motion (it's too big for an email, unfortunately). This is an example of just some of the new things we've been working on, notably:

- The car has many more sprite orientations compared to models from Brigador - this gives it a smoother look as it turns.
- An assortment of grass tiles that have a z-depth shader to give the effect of the headlights casting shadows.
- Road crack tiles that add extra detail to environments.
- Various new "minis" in the form of signage.
- The destroyed cop car is new, sort of. In our first game most vehicles when destroyed leave a "hulk" on the ground. Hulks are desaturated versions of a vehicle sprite, giving the illusion of being burned out. Here's what the original color of the car looks like.

We'll get into more detail about the above in 2022, especially the cars, because the wheeled vehicle movetype is one of the major additions to the game engine.

Regarding Deliveries To The United Kingdom

In January this year we announced that we had halted merchandise deliveries to the UK as a result of Brexit. In recent months we were able to conclude that because of the extra overhead required with regards to the UK's HMRC and obtaining a UK VAT ID (even though we are not a UK business) we will not be sending packages to the UK, as the cost of doing so would not be balanced out by current sales. Once again to all prospective UK customers: we are sorry and we hope the situation improves in 2022.

If you are not in the UK, you can still take advantage of our seasonal promocode `HOLIDAYS2021` at our store checkout (or click the button below) which will give you 20% off your next merch purchase. Please note that a minimum order value of 8 USD is required. The promotional code is active until 23:59 CST, December 31st, 2021.

Community Spotlight

When you think December, obviously the first thing that comes to mind is Norman Osberger. First up is the South Park-themed "Oh my god, they killed Norman" by Lowkek Ops...

...meanwhile Juntti never left, first with Norman pondering...

...second, it turns out, Norman's also been getting into NFTs...

...We don't expect Norman's new venture to work out. Lastly, we opened with a tease, so we'll close with one more. Here's Brigador book author Brad Buckmaster's visualization of the BK novel characters during The Long Night.

Many more community contributions can, as ever, be seen in the #becks_best channel on our Discord server.

Next Year

We'll be getting back to speed in the second week of January 2022 but there'll be plenty more BK news in the coming year.

Happy Holidays from Stellar Jockeys!
