Take Our Hardware Survey

The Stellar Jockeys 2023 Community Hardware Survey is currently live and taking responses. Participation in the survey is anonymous but any information gathered will be incredibly helpful to us as it tells us what benchmark to aim for with our games.

Take Survey

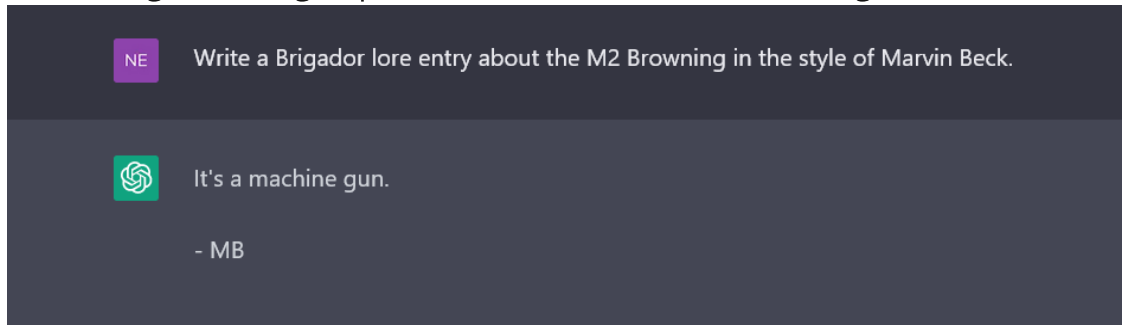

This survey will run until March 31st, 2023, after which the usual graphs will be posted in our #survey-results channel on our Discord.

Garfield D'Arbuckle

Lethargic, obese felinoid. Incapable of following orders. Astounding kicking strength despite size, capable of striking hard enough to send objects or opponents into and beyond orbit. Tendency to sleep on the job. Extreme appetite, will consume food without regard for contemporaries. Dislikes alarm clocks. Has a penchant for layered Italian savory meals or boxed meal prep involving mincemeat, among other culinary options. Poor sense of morality.
