(*It would have happened sooner but the time spent redesigning the packaging for new and current store items pushed back the release)

Community Spotlight

...Zi imagined what it would be like for Prism-Kun to work in the service industry...

...and also riffed on the famous cover of Sonic Adventure...

...but no month's newsletter could be dispatched without a Juntti contribution, obviously.

Still haven't joined our discord server? You're missing out on all the other contributions that end up in the #becks_best channel each month.
