Keep An Eye On Itch.io

We plan to make a build of Brigador Killers available to the public in the next few days over on Itch.io. If you did not know we had an Itch.io page for Brigador Killers, or missed the announcement post last year, then please start following it.

Community Spotlight

To make up for this month's edition turning up late, we received an embarrassing number of submissions worthy of entering #becks_best. First up sigmacore and lowkek both riffed on a Facebook post that went viral...

...And so did glwzbill.

That same glwzbill was also inspired to do their own version of the hundo from Brigador Killers in Kingspray Grafitti VR.

Community spotlight regular Flyingdebris was also in top form.

Over on Twitter, @KimokaheSmith sketched a Touro...

...While @Reddus\_Art showed off their Mongoose commission.

Finally, Juntti imagined Brigador Killers' Froggy in a slightly different IP.

This isn't even half of what was posted in the #becks_best channel last month. Head on over to our Discord if you'd like to see the rest.
