

STELLAR JOCKEYS JANUARY 2025 NEWSLETTER

Welcome to your first Stellar Jockeys newsletter for 2025. This month is a look at a new lighting tool for Brigador Killers.

Brigador Killers: Ghost Lights

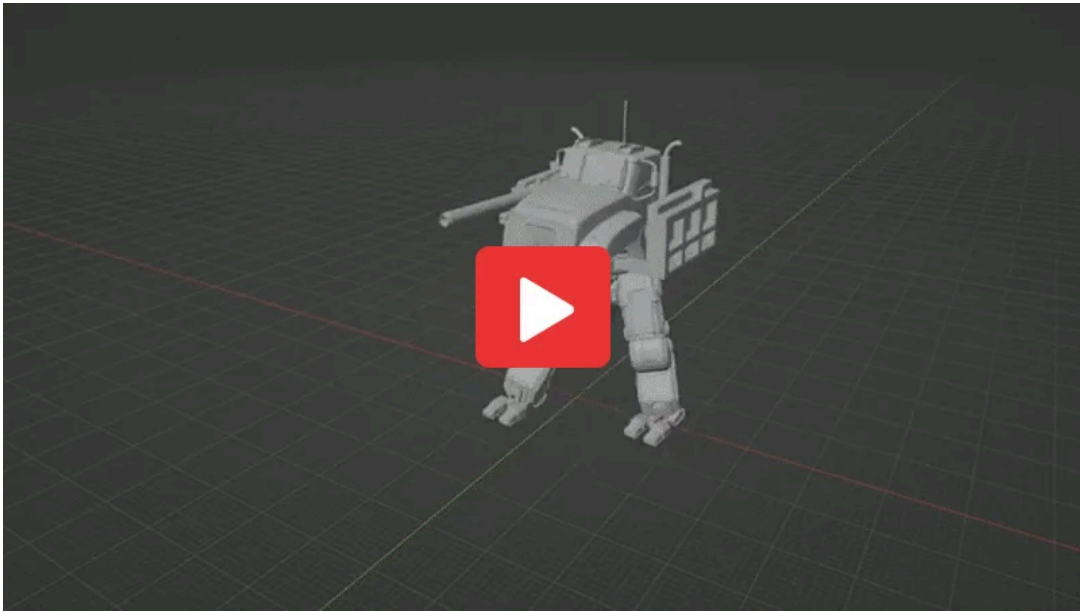

For the first Brigador Killers update of 2025, we show off a new feature of the game's debug panel called "ghost lights". Click the picture above to see a YouTube video or read the article on Steam below for more.

Community Spotlight

With the new year, we have a handful of new pickings from the #becks_best channel. First up is GOOG who showed off some Corvid ingenuity in kitbashing a 3D-printable Fatshoe and documented the process...

...CATASTEROID saw in 2025 by raising a cup of the green stuff...

...and Lowkek is in strong form with their pixel art breakdown of Dave.

Reminder again that our Discord server is where we are most active. Each weekend our community moderators host a game and movie night, and newcomers are always welcome.
