

STELLAR JOCKEYS JANUARY NEWSLETTER

Welcome to your first Stellar Jockeys newsletter for 2026. Let's go over the main news of late.

Benjamin, Stellar Jockeys

BK Dev: Garage Build Footage & Impressions

If you have not seen it yet, we uploaded a video showing off roughly 20 minutes of gameplay from the Garage Build. The video got a lot of traction, including a writeup on PC Gamer. This month's dev post is looking back at the various reactions people had to the Garage Build, as well as answering some frequently-asked questions.

BK OST - Let's Mingle

In addition to the above news post, a new Makeup and Vanity Set track from the Brigador Killers soundtrack has been added to our YouTube playlist. It's titled "Let's Mingle" and is heard in the Dealership level in the Garage Build. In addition, a new MAVS track will be added to this playlist at the end of every month for the next few months.

Brigador Pricing Update & More Store Merch

In other news:

- Brigador: Up-Armored Edition's price has been reduced in several currencies including the UK, South Korea, and Poland.
- Four mini packs and three sticker sheets are coming to the merch store.
- Stellar Jockeys has heard back confirmation from the UK's HMRC, which means we can properly begin the process of restoring orders to the UK (but it will still take time).

More details on the above can be read in this news post.

Community Spotlight

This month's newsletter is pretty heavy so we'll leave it to just one #becks_best entry. Server newcomer Mr Ixolate flexed their lino printing skills with colored paper and mixing inks to create some very cool SNC images (click to enlarge).

But a few other entries made their way into the Discord server hall of fame over the past month - check them out in #becks_best.

Next Month

As you may have guessed from reading the news posts, Stellar Jockeys will be exceptionally busy in 2026. We're only getting started.
